

The Commission for Case Manager Certification (CCMC), has named Patricia “Patty” Jones, BSN, MBA to its 2010-2011 Board of Commissioners where she will serve a four-year, re-electable term. Patty is a healthcare management consultant with Seattle-based consulting firm, Milliman (formerly Milliman & Robertson). Jones received her nursing degree from Purdue University, and earned an MBA from Boston University. She has served on many national healthcare advisory committees for organizations such as the Disease Management Association of America (DMAA) and America's Health Insurance Plans (AHIP). In addition, she is currently a member of URAC’s National Standards Committee, and a Surveyor for the National Committee on Quality Assurance (NCQA ). CCMC is the nation's first and largest nationally accredited organization for case management certification. Milliman is among the world's largest independent actuarial and consulting firms, serving clients in four practice areas: Healthcare, Employee Benefits and Pensions, Property and Casualty Insurance, and Life Insurance & Investments.